

Crossing the River Kabul: An Afghan Family's Odyssey

Book Description

Crossing the River Kabul is a memoir by Najiba Noori, an Afghan woman who fled her home country with her family during the Soviet-Afghan War. The book tells the story of her family's journey from Afghanistan to Pakistan, Iran, and finally to the United States. Along the way, they faced unimaginable hardships, including poverty, discrimination, and violence. But through it all, they never gave up hope of finding a better life.
