

Cuba Before Castro: A Century of Family Memoirs

Cuba Before Castro: A Century of Family Memoirs is a fascinating and deeply personal account of Cuban history as seen through the eyes of one family.

The book begins with the arrival of the author's great-grandfather in Cuba in 1845. He was a young man from Spain who came to the island in search of a new life. He found work on a sugar plantation and eventually married a Cuban woman. Their son, the author's grandfather, was born in Cuba in 1865. He grew up to become a successful businessman and landowner. He married a woman from a prominent Cuban family, and they had five children, including the author's father.
