The Pyramids of Giza

The Pyramids of Giza are one of the most iconic landmarks in the world. These massive structures were built over 4,500 years ago and are a testament to the ingenuity and skill of the ancient Egyptians. The largest of the pyramids, the Great Pyramid of Giza, is over 480 feet tall and contains over 2 million blocks of stone. The pyramids were built as tombs for the pharaohs and were filled with treasures that were meant to accompany the pharaohs into the afterlife.

The Lost City of Petra

The lost city of Petra is located in Jordan and was once a thriving metropolis. The city was built by the Nabataeans, an Arab tribe who controlled the trade routes in the region. Petra was a major center for trade and culture and was home to a diverse population of people from all over the world. The city was abandoned in the 6th century AD and was lost to the world for centuries.
