

Memoir of the Liberation War of Bangladesh: A Gripping Account of a Nation's Struggle for Independence

In 1971, Bangladesh was a battleground. The Pakistan Army had launched a brutal crackdown on the Bengali population, and the country was plunged into a bloody civil war. In the midst of this chaos, a young man named Asadullah Hillali picked up a pen and began to write.

Hillali's memoir, Memoir of the Liberation War of Bangladesh, is a harrowing and deeply moving account of his experiences during the war. He writes about the atrocities he witnessed, the comrades he lost, and the indomitable spirit of the Bangladeshi people.
