The book is divided into five sections, each focusing on a different area of achievement: arts and culture, business and entrepreneurship, education, government and public service, and science and technology.

The heroes profiled in the book include:

- Celia Cruz, the "Queen of Salsa"
- Ellen Ochoa, the first Hispanic woman to go into space
- Henry Cisneros, the first Hispanic mayor of San Antonio

- Sonia Sotomayor, the first Hispanic Supreme Court Justice
- Carlos Slim, the richest man in the world

These are just a few of the many heroes profiled in the book. Their stories are a reminder that anything is possible if you have the courage to follow your dreams.

Portraits of Hispanic American Heroes is a valuable resource for anyone who wants to learn more about the contributions of Hispanics to American society. It is also a great source of inspiration for young people who are looking for role models to follow.
