After the war, Sigi and his wife escaped to the United States with nothing more than the clothes on their backs. With unwavering hard work and resilience, they established a successful knitwear business in New York City. But Sigi's life was not solely about material success. Deeply affected by his experiences during the Holocaust, he dedicated his life to helping others.

In 1987, Sigi founded the From the Depths Foundation, an organization dedicated to preserving the memory of the Holocaust and educating future generations about its horrors. He traveled to schools and community centers around the world, sharing his firsthand account of the Nazi atrocities. Sigi's unwavering commitment to Holocaust education was recognized by the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum, which awarded him its prestigious Elie Wiesel Award in 2013.

In his autobiography, Siggi Wilzig: An Astonishing Journey from Auschwitz Survivor to Philanthropist, Siggi shares his remarkable story of survival, resilience, and redemption. With candor and courage, he recounts the horrors he endured in Auschwitz and the challenges he faced in rebuilding his life after the war. But beyond the darkness, Siggi's memoir is a testament to the power of hope and the enduring spirit of the human soul.

Through Siggi's eyes, we witness the resilience of the human spirit in the face of unimaginable adversity. We learn about the importance of perseverance, compassion, and forgiveness. Siggi's journey is a reminder that even in the darkest of times, hope and light can prevail.

Siggi Wilzig's life is an inspiration to us all. His unwavering commitment to Holocaust education and his unwavering determination to make a difference in the world are a testament to the unbreakable human spirit. His autobiography is a must-read for anyone who seeks to understand the horrors of the Holocaust, the power of resilience, and the importance of living a life of purpose and meaning.

Quotes from Siggi Wilzig

- "I have chosen to live my life with hope, not despair. I have chosen to live my life with courage, not fear. I have chosen to live my life with love, not hate."
- "The Holocaust was the most horrible event in human history, but it also teaches us important lessons about the human capacity for evil and the importance of fighting against prejudice and intolerance."

- "We must never forget the Holocaust, and we must always speak out against hatred and violence."
- "Life is a gift, and we must make the most of it. We must live our lives with purpose and meaning, and we must make a difference in the world."
