Mary Beard is one of the world's leading historians of ancient Rome. In her new book, Welcome Aboard, she takes readers on a journey through Roman history, from the founding of the city in 753 BC to the fall of the Western Empire in 476 AD.

Beard's book is not a dry academic tome. It is a lively and engaging account of Roman history, full of fascinating stories and insights. Beard writes with a clear and concise style, and she has a knack for making complex topics easy to understand.

Welcome Aboard is divided into three parts. The first part, "The Republic," tells the story of the Roman Republic, from its foundation to its collapse in 27 BC. The second part, "The Empire," tells the story of the Roman Empire, from its foundation by Augustus to its fall in 476 AD. The third part, "The Legacy," explores the legacy of Roman civilization, from its influence on Western culture to its impact on the world today.

Welcome Aboard is a must-read for anyone who is interested in Roman history. It is a lively, engaging, and informative account of one of the most important civilizations in human history.
